

Franklin Cultural ARTS Council

The mission of the Franklin Cultural Arts Council is to enhance the cultural environment and economy of Franklin County through development and promotion of the arts and cultural tourism. The arts include visual, performing, literary, cultural and historical arts and their display.

The Franklin County Arts Council is committed to a leadership role as the community umbrella organization for the arts. The Arts Council collaborates with cultural institutions and organizations; provides and coordinates services to the arts community; encourages and supports arts programming for the citizenry; and enhances, promotes and contributes to the development of cultural tourism.

2009-2010 Preliminary Goals

- Establish a website to include a comprehensive artist directory, a cultural calendar, a resource center for cultural institutions and organizations and membership support information
- Support the Arts in Medicine Program at Weems Memorial Hospital
- Provide Culture and Arts programs in Franklin County Schools
